

©2014 ~ Elena Carrillo

FRANK MERRIWELL

1896-1899

Frank Merriwell attended Yale off and on for most of his sixteen-year career in print (and another fifteen or so thereafter)

A running outfit (actually worn with those white dock-looking shoes) from Frank Merriwell's Vim; or Reawakening the Yale Spirit October 21, 1899

A crew outfit from Frank Merriwell's Nerve; or, Game to the End, March 27, 1897

For more 19th-century-themed paper dolls visit:
<http://19thcenturypaperdolls.weebly.com/>

Frank Merriwell was created by Gilbert Patten in 1896 for Street & Smith publishers under the pseudonym Burt L. Standish.